

NEW GENERATION
International Schools

The Balanced APPROACH

New Generation International Schools is an international bilingual (Arabic and English) school that offers the American Diploma from Preschool to grade twelve as well as the International Baccalaureate (IB) in the high school years. In grade four, students choose to study either the French or the German languages. Students of New Generation are not only distinguished by their excellence in academics, languages and physical fitness, but their pride in their religion and their cultural identity.

Mission

To bring forth productive, well balanced members of society, confident in their cultural identity and pursuing intellectual, spiritual, and physical excellence to make valuable contributions to their community and to the well-being of humanity.
