

Dear Readers;
I am delighted to welcome you to the Red Sea Property show 2010

Since Egypt has witnessed the tremendous and continuous expansion of the Red Sea and North Coast which have become two of the most important tourist attractions in Red Sea. This in turn, resulted in the birth then the growth of the Real Estate in Red Sea and opened the door to a new market.

And for the reason, we have organized this Red Sea property show INTERHOUSING EXPO to gather the pioneers of the industry in one place and under one roof, and give them the chance and opportunity to expose their projects to those who are interested in investment and also who want to live in Hurghada or to have their sunny home all over the year

The Red Sea property show considered The most eagerly anticipated property event of the year, it is set to welcome more than real estate professionals and investors.

A true business to business and business to consumer fair that attracts the truly biggest real estate institution, banks and investment companies.

Buyer will find all information about available options and financing solution Developers will meet directly with target audience.
